The focus of this friendly outdoor show is a juried exhibition of fine arts and crafts in a beautiful mountain setting. The Festival is complemented by live music, food booths and a children's art area. Organizers will focus marketing efforts on drawing the art connoisseur from Colorado's front range and the surrounding mountain towns to gather for a weekend of art and music. An 12-page full color Festival Guide will be distributed; minimum of 11,000 copies.

TO ENTER:

Submit no more than four photos or four images on a disc of your current work. Label the back of slides with artist's name. These images are the determining factor in your application. Please take care that they represent you fairly. Do not send samples of your work. Applications are due no later than April 5th, 2011.

Please include any information about yourself and your work techniques that would be appropriate for publicity releases. If you would like to advertise in the Festival Guide, special rates will be available to artists.
